Petitioning the Court

Petitioning the Court to consider the offender for early termination of supervision.

Cause

In that the offender is on unsupervised probation, the undersigned officer has no personal contact with Mr. Gulick. However, a review of the U. S. District Court Clerk's records revealed the offender satisfied the $25.00 special assessment and $1,000.00 fine in full on September 6, 2005. A review of his criminal history record revealed no new arrests or convictions during the first nineteen months on probation.

Therefore, it is recommended that the offender's term of unsupervised probation be allowed to terminate prior to the normal expiration date of September 1, 2007, due to his compliant behavior while on probation.

The Assistant U.S. Attorney has been notified and there are no objections.
